

Canadian Pacific Women's Open

Thursday, August 23, 2018

Angel Yin

Quick Quotes

Q. Here with Angel Yin, 6-under par 65 today at the CP Women's Open. What were working well for you out there today?

ANGEL YIN: Overall my game was just working well. I don't think it was one part of my game that was working well, especially well.

And I think it's just -- I've been playing well for the whole year and now I'm scoring.

Q. You're coming into this week off a Top 5 finish at the Indy Women of Tech last week. Talk about the momentum coming into this week after that result?

ANGEL YIN: Well, it felt good to finish fifth. And then coming into this week -- yeah, I feel good. I'm ready for the rest of week.

Q. How important was it get off to a good start today given that the scoring conditions were pretty favorable out there?

ANGEL YIN: Yeah, well, I played the pro-am yesterday and it was quite firm, the greens and everything, so I was a little surprised with how the scores were low.

But then I came out here and I played and I played pretty well, so I didn't complain.

Q. How about the group dynamic today where everybody was going low? Were you all feeding off of one another?

ANGEL YIN: Yeah, the whole group was great. Everyone played really well. It was just a great group to have everyone play well.

